Reason for Allowance

1. Claims 2, 4-13, 15, 17-36, 39 and 40 are allowed over prior art.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: As indicated in the previous office action claims 28-36, 39 and 40 contain allowable subject matter, and claims 4, 6, 7, 9-11, 17, 19, 20, 23, 25 and 26 also contain allowable subject matter, but was objected to because they depend on rejected claims. Applicant has canceled previously rejected claims 1, 3, 14, 16, 37 and 38, and amended previously rejected and objected claims 2, 4-6, 8-18, 15, 17-21, 23, 25 and 26 to read as independent claim and/or to include the previously indicated allowable subject matter. In addition, the IDS submitted on April 18, 2005 have been considered.

Although the cited art teaches a switching device in a mobile system that supports GPRS of a mobile radio network, wherein the architecture includes a plurality of packet data communication networks, multiple Internet service providers are connected to a GPRS network, which track individual mobile stations location and performs security function and access control, they fail to teach/suggest a database associated with the packet network that stores profile information which includes services available to mobile in both the system(private) and public networks, wherein at least one service available to the mobile in the system network is not available in the public network, and access point that retrieves the first/second profile information, compares the first/second profile information and provides GPRS service to the mobile station based on the comparison, and a GPRS support node that consist of a Part-3 message transfer (MTP-3) user adaptation protocol layer and a stream control transmission protocol layer to manage MTP-3 messages.
